Technology Errors & Omissions + Cyber Solutions

Having technology errors & omissions + cyber solutions insurance for a tech company is a must-have in the modern world, and it's there for those days when things don't go as planned.

Technology Errors & Omissions (E&O) Liability

Technology companies need well-designed insurance solutions — that's where we come in. At Berkley Technology Underwriters, our technology professional liability coverage offerings are some of the most comprehensive products available in the market today. It includes liability coverage for Information & Network Security, Cyber, Communications, and Media – all automatically included under a single form.

Cyber Insurance

Cyber insurance can help protect businesses against losses from cyber exposures such as malware, ransomware, distributed denial-of-service attacks (DDoS), or any other methods used to access or compromise computer systems or networks — including assuming operational control and accessing sensitive data.
